

Deuter. 32:19

16 ¶ Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another; and the LORD hearkened and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

Isa. 60:1

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

CHAP. IV.

1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

¶ Or, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse,

March 20, 1969

Dear Mrs. Floyd,

On his way home from work yesterday afternoon, Berton Walker brought the two pages from which I shall make Xerox copies of the John McCain--Mary Huey Bible for you and also your most recent letter to his wife about the immigration of Hercules Huey and family to America. I had not occurred to me that all their children were born in Ireland. When or if I go to a larger library than we have here I may possibly find a list of immigrants about that time.

The Xerox copies of the McCain Bible pages are for your Historical Society or your Genealogical Society files with one typewritten page, one typewritten page is for your files and one is for any interested McCain.

On the Xerox copy, please notice that I added the information about John and Mary in order to identify the family. One can tell from the old style type that these pages were from an old Bible.

I sent both Xerox and typewritten copies to Mr. V. H. Huey. If he publishes another book I hope he uses the correct list. Also I sent at least the typewritten list to Mr. Nisbet (or perhaps both). I am eager to get correct lists in circulation. My Eleanor McCain Gault certainly deserved being listed! Without my great grandmother, where would I be????

You did an enormous amount of work in collecting material for such a large book and more than could possibly be expected in retyping some thirty-one pages of the missing pages!. We surely have about all the material we need about the Huey family and quite a bit about the McCain family, including several people with whom we have exchanged correspondence. It is amazing how many of the two families married.

Our newspaper carries Ann Landers' columns. About two days after I read page 263 in your book about sisters named Julia, someone asked Mrs. Landers' opinion about renaming a boy for his beloved older brother who was killed in the Vietnam war. She did not like the idea, nor do I. One of my Gault uncles wanted to name a baby for their first child who had died when a few months old but his wife would not agree. Apparently the baby was named for our first North Carolina Gault ancestor, William.

No doubt you would "just as lieve" skip the birthday which is coming soon but congratulations and best wishes anyway. We do not have your father's address so please share this little card with him, next month. How very fortunate that he can continue to enjoy hunting and fishing.

None of this material requires an answer.

Sincerely,

Rosemary C. Painter
