Judgt. ent. August 3d. 1812

South Carolina }
Lancaster District } to wit

George Gayden was attached to answer to James Clark of a plea that he render unto him two hundred and eighteen dollars and ten cents which to him the said George owes and from him unjustly detains to his damage one hundred dollars. whereupon the said James by Abram Blanding his attorney complains for that whereas the said [illegible] One thousand eight hundred and ni[illegible] the Lancaster Court house in the District and State aforesaid made his certain writing obligatory commonly called a sealed note or single bill sealed with the seal of the said George, by which said writing obligatory the said George, acknowledged himself to be justly indebted to the said James in the sum of two hundred and eighteen dollars and ten cents to be paid unto the said James whenever he the said George should be thereunto afterwards required.

Nevertheless the said George altho often thereunto afterwards required, the said sum of money or any part thereof hath not paid but the same to the said James hath refused and still doth wholly refuse to pay wherefore the said James saith he is injured and hath sustained damage to one hundred dollars therefore he brings suit and so forth, and produces here into court the writing obligatory aforesaid, which testifies the debt aforesaid, the date whereof is the day and year first written and so forth

And now at this day to wit the second monday after the fouth monday in March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve at the court of common pleas holden ~~for~~ at Lancaster court house come the said James Clark by his attorney aforesaid and prays that the said George Gayden to the declaration of the said James may answer and the said George being solemnly called comes not but makes default whereby the said James remains thereof against him undefended.

Therefore it is considered by the court aforesaid that the said James ought to recover against the said George his debt aforesaid and also his damages by him sustained by reason of the detention of the said debt but because it is unknown what those damages are. Therefore it is ordered that the same should be submitted to the Clerk of the court now here to ascertain the sum actually due to the said James. and the said Clerk does therefore assess the damages of the said James by reason of the detention of the said debt besides his costs and charges by him expended to forty nine dollars and sixty cents. Therefore it is considered by the court now here that the said James do recover against the said George his debt and damages so as aforesaid assessed and also twenty one dollars and sixty seven Cents for his costs and charges aforesaid to him by the court now here with his assent adjudged which said damages costs and charges in the whole amount to seventy one dollars and twenty seven Cents

And be the said George in mercy and so forth
