Judgment on Writ of Inq. Damages assessed by Clerk, Debt or Assumpsit.—Morgan's Press.

Spring TERM, 18/847

And now at this day, to wit, the third Monday after the fourth Monday in March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven come s the said Benjamin Beckmon for Will. J. Rawlins the Plaintiff by his Attorney s aforesaid, and pray s that the said John Sings the Defendant to the Declaration of his the said Plaintiff may answer: and the said Defendant being solemnly called, come not, but make default, whereby the said Plaintiff remain thereof against him undefended: WHEREFORE, it is considered by the Court now here, that the said Plaintiff ought to recover against the said Defendant the damages by him sustained by reason of the premises: But because it is unknown to the Court what those damages are:

It is therefore, Ordered, That the same be referred to the Clerk of the said Court, to ascertain the sum actually due by the said Defendant to the said Plaintiff pursuant to the directions of the Act of the General Assembly of the said State, in such case made and provided; and the said Clerk thereupon having ascertained the same, and assessed the Damages of the said Plaintiff by reason of the premises, besides his costs and charges by him expended in and about prosecuting suit in this behalf, to Eighty five Dollars with interest ~~on~~

from the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Forty four

Therefore, it is considered by the Court now here, that the said Plaintiff do recover against the said Defendant the said sum of Eighty five Dollars the damages so ascertained and assessed as aforesaid; and also Eighteen Dollars Sixty two & ½ cts for his costs and charges aforesaid, to him by the Court now here, with his assent adjudged; which said damages, costs and charges, in the whole amount to One Hundred & three Dollars 62½ cts with interest on Eighty five Dollars from the first day of Nov in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and 44

And be the said Defendant in mercy, and so forth.
