Issued January 17. 1814

The State of South Car
Lancaster District
James Crenshaw was attached to answer to Jason Hicklin and Hugh Hicklin administrators of all and singular the goods chattels and credits that were of Arthur Hicklin deceased, of a plea, of trespaſs on the case and so forthe: Whereupon the said Jason Hicklin and Hugh Hicklin by their Attornies John Hooker and Thomas Williams &c complain that whereas the said James in the life time of the said Arthur ~~was indebted~~ to wit ~~the~~ on the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and at ~~Chest~~ ~~Chest~~ at Lancr the Court House in the district and the su nine hund aforesaid, w and Expended for so much mon by the said Arthur to and for the of him at same , at the speci instance and request of the said James, he the said James in consideration thereof afterwards to wit the same day and year aforesaid, at the place afore said, aſsumed upon himself and to the said Arthur there and then faith fully promised to pay to the said Arthur the said sums of nine hundred dollars when he should be thereto afterwards required. And whereas also afterwards to wit the ~~first day of March in the year of our Lord~~ same day and year aforesaid, at the place aforesaid, in the life time of the said Ar thur, the said Arthur and the said James, accounted together, of and concer ning divers transactions and dealings, between them before that time had, ~~and~~ upon ~~that~~ which accounting there appeared to be and was a balance due from the said James to the said Arthur, of Eight hundred and seventy nine dollars and fifty nine cents; he the said James afterwards to wit the same day and year ~~afore~~ last aforesaid, at the place aforesaid aſsumed upon himself and the said Arthur then and there faithf to pay mon aforesaid, when he be thereunto afterwards required. Yet the said James his promises and aſsumptions aforesaid in form aforesaid made in no wise regarding but contriving and fraudulently intending the said Arthur in this behalf craftily and subtilely to deceive and defraud, hath not paid the aforesaid sums of money to the said Arthur in his life time, nor to the said Jason and Hugh since the death of ~~the~~ said Arthur, ~~but the said~~ although often requested; but the same to pay the said Arthur in his life time, or to the said Jason and Hugh since the death of the said Arthur ~~the~~ said James has altogether refused, and the same ~~to pay~~ to the said Jason and Hughs still does refuse: to the damage of the said Jason and Hugh two thousand dollars; and therefore they bring suit and so forthe.

The State of South Carolina Court of Common Pleas Lancaster District

~~[illegible]~~ Hugh Hicklin & Joram Hicklin administrators of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of Arthur Hicklin deceased, suggest to your Honors that on the Eigth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and Eleven, ~~&~~ James Crenshaw made and Executed to the said Arthur Hicklin, a mortgage under his hand and seal of a plantation or tract of land, Estimated at 200 acres originally granted to William Ashley, situate on the East side of Catawba River in the district of Lancaster, lying on Camp Creek and Dry Creek, waters of the Catawba River, bounded on lands (on the north) belonging to Middleton McDonald formerly Thomas Hanna's & Wm Cornelius's - West on lands of John Johnson formerly William Felman's - South on John Brown's land, formerly Jesse Felman's - East on land of Henry Horton formerly Joseph Crenshaw's - which said land the said James Crenshaw bought from James Chesnut - The Condition of which mortgage was that if the said James Crenshaw should well and truly pay and discharge in six months, a certain debt or contract made with the Executors of the estate of Col. Archibald Gill deceased to the amount of between four and five hundred dollars which the said Arthur Hicklin stood ~~security for~~ surety for, and also other just debts or accounts then due to the said ~~[illegible]~~ Arthur Hicklin from or by the said James Crenshaw, which should be exhibited in a settlement of accounts, then the said mortgage should be void - And the said administrators further suggest, that at the present term of the said Court of Common pleas, they have obtained judgment by confession against the said James Crenshaw for the sum of Eight hundred and Seventy nine dollars and sixty nine cents, on account of the debts mentioned in the said mortgage -

The said administrators therefore pray your Honors to order a sale of the said mortgaged premises & upon such lawful terms and conditions, as to your Honors shall seem meet
