the defendant now attached to answer to Charles F. Baldwin, Charles J. Starr, and Augustus E. Baldwin, copartners in trade under the name and Style of Baldwin Starr & Co., assignees, the plaintiffs of a plea that the defendant render the Plaintiffs the sum of seventeen hundred dollars, which to the said plaintiffs, the said defendant owes and from the said Plaintiffs unjustly detains and so forth, whereupon the, Plaintiffs Complain for that whereas, the defendant on the second day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty four at Camden S.C. to wit at Lancaster Courthouse in the district and State aforesaid, did make his certain writing obligatory commonly called a sealed note or single Bill, Sealed with his seal and did then and there deliver the same unto the proper handwriting thereunto subscribed, bearing date the day and year last aforesaid, unto one E. Tryon, by which said writing obligatory the defendant did promise to pay to the order of E. Tryon at the Bank of Camden South Carolina, Seventeen hundred Dollars for value received, three months after the date thereof which period had elapsed before the commencement of this Suit, and the said E. Tryon, to whose order the said sealed note was payable there and there assigned and delivered the same to the Plaintiffs and directed payment of the same to be made to the Plaintiffs; and the Plaintiffs in fact say that the defendant did not pay the sum of money due by the said note to the said Plaintiffs although the same was there presented on the day when the same became due and payable. By reason whereof the defendant became liable to pay or under the said sum of money to the Plaintiffs whenever he should be thereun-to afterwards required, Nevertheless the defendant, although often requested, the said sum of money hath not yet rendered but the same to the Plaintiffs hath refused and still refuses to render to the Plaintiffs To the Damage of the Plaintiffs Three thousand four hundred Dollars, the Plaintiffs bring Suit and so forth; and the Plaintiffs produce herein court, the writing obligatory aforesaid, which testifies the debt aforesaid, in form aforesaid, the date whereof is the day and

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, KERSHAW DISTRICT.

On this Day, the first day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty four, and in the Seventy Eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, at the request of the President and Directors of The Bank of Camden, South Carolina, I J. B. Kelly Esq. Notary Public and Justice of the Quorum, Ex-Officio, by lawful authority, duly sworn, admitted and commissioned, by Letters Patent, under the seal of the said State, residing and practising in the town of Camden, and State aforesaid, did exhibit the original note a true copy whereof is on the other side written. at the Bank of Camden South Carolina where the same is made payable and in the absence of the maker demand of payment from the Cashier which he refused. I thereupon made out notices of non payment and demand of payment for E. Bryan addressed to Camden S. C. also for A. B. Blackman and Baldwin Starr the endorsers as a like notice for leaving the same addressed to New York and deposited the whole in the post Office in this town this day

Therefore, I, the said Notary Public, at the request aforesaid, have Protested, and by these presents do solemnly and publicly Protest as well against the Drawer of the said note as the Endorsers ~~and~~ and against all whom it may concern for Exchange, Re-Exchange, and all Costs, Charges, Damages and Interest, suffered or sustained, or to be suffered or sustained, for want of payment of the said note.

Thus done and protested at Camden, the day and year above written.

In Testimonium Veritatis.

Instructions to the Commissioners.

THE Commissioners will please attend to the instructions contained in this Commission, after which, when they are proceeding to business, they will put the first interrogatory to the first Witness produced, and set down the answer thereto on a sheet, entitled "Depositions, &c." When this is done, they will put the second interrogatory, and set down the answer thereto, and so on throughout. When the answers are fully set down, one of the Commissioners, or the Clerk, will please read the same over distinctly to the Witness, and let him or her subscribe his or her name thereto; and then proceed to examine the next witness in the same manner. The Commissioners will please fix or fasten the several sheets containing the Commission, Interrogatories and Depositions, all together, and set their hands and seals to the bottom of the whole, and subscribe their names in the margin of each sheet of the depositions. They will please certify on the back of the Commission, that "the execution of this Commission appears in the schedule hereunto annexed." They will then enclose the whole in a blank paper, sufficiently large, well sealed with their seals, and subscribe their names on the outside thereof, having endorsed the packet at one end or corner thereof, with the names of the parties, Plaintiff and Defendant. The Commissioners will please direct the same to J. A. Stevenman Esquire, Clerk of the Court for Lancaster at Lancaster C.H. District, in the State of South Carolina. The Commissioners, or one of them, will then please deposit the same in the nearest Post office, or else deliver it to some disinterested person, who will bring it and deliver it to the Clerk of the Court aforesaid, and make oath that he received it from "one of the Commissioners within named, and that it has not been out of his possession, or opened, or altered since he received it."

Should the sheets herewith sent, not be sufficient to contain all the depositions, the Commissioner will please add as many more as will be sufficient, and tack, seal, and fasten the whole together as above directed.

If the Commission should be returned by mail, one of the Commissioners will endorse and sign a certificate, that the Commission was lodged by him in the Post office.
