William Easton was attached to answer to Robert Low in a plea of the facts on the case. And thereupon the said Robert by Blanding Prioleau his attorney complains for that Whereas the said William on the ~~day~~ day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven at Lancaster court house in the District and State aforesaid and within the jurisdiction of this court made his certain note in writing, commonly called a promissory note, his own proper handwriting being thereunto subscribed, bearing date ~~on the~~ day and year aforesaid, and then and there delivered the said note to the said Robert, and thereby then and there, promised to pay or cause to be paid, on the twenty fifth day of December next after the date of the said note, unto the said Robert, or order the just sum of two hundred dollars and seventy five cents, for value received by him the said William. By means whereof and by force of the statute in such case made and provided and made of force in this state, the said William became liable to pay to the said Robert, the said sum of money in the said note specified, according to the tenor and effect thereof, and being so liable he the said William in consideration thereof, afterwards, to wit, on the same day and year aforesaid at Lancaster court house aforesaid undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said Robert to pay him the said ~~said sum of money in the said note~~ ~~according to the tenor and effect thereof.~~ And whereas the said William afterwards, to wit, on the same day, and year aforesaid, at Lancaster court house aforesaid was indebted to the said Robert ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ the sum of three hundred dollars for money by the said Robert before that time, laid out and expended and paid for the said William at his special instance and request and for other money by the said Robert, before that time lent and advanced to the said William at his special instance and request, and being so indebted, he the said William in consideration thereof, afterwards, to wit, on the day and year last mentioned, at Lancaster court house aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said Robert to pay him the said last mentioned sum of money when he ^{the} said William should be thereunto afterwards requested. Yet the said William not regarding the several promises and undertakings, in form aforesaid made, but contriving and fraudulently intending the said Robert in this behalf craftily and subtly to deceive and defraud, hath not as yet paid the several sums of money in any or other of them or any part thereof to the said Robert (although after requested so to do) But the said William to pay to pay the same, hath hitherto wholly neglected and refused and still doth neglect and refuse. To the damage of the said Robert four hundred Dollars and therefore he brings

November TERM, 1814

And now at this day, to wit, the second Monday after the fourth Monday in October in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen come the said Robert Low by his Attorney aforesaid, and pray, that the said William Easton to the Declaration of him the said Robert may answer: And the said William being solemnly called, comes not, but makes default, whereby the said

Robert remains thereof against him undefended. Wherefore it is considered by the court now here, that the said Robert ought to recover against the said William ~~the sum of two hundred and thirty eight~~ ~~dollars and seventy one cents for his~~ his damages by him sustained by reason of the premises: But because it is unknown to the Court what those damages are: It is therefore ordered, That the same be referred to the Clerk of the said Court, to ascertain the Sum actually due by the said

to the said Robert pursuant to the direction of the act of the General Assembly of the said State, in such case made and provided; and the said Clerk thereupon having ascertained the same, and assessed the damages of the said Robert by reason of the premises, besides his costs and charges by him expended in and about prosecuting his suit in this behalf, to two hundred and thirty eight dollars and seventy one cents

THEREFORE it is considered by the Court now here, that the said Robert do recover against the said William his damages so ascertained and assessed as aforesaid; and also the sum of twenty one dollars and ninety five cents for his Costs and Charges aforesaid, to him by the Court now here with his assent adjudged; which said damages, Costs and Charges, in the whole, amount to two hundred and sixty six dollars and sixty six cents and be the said William in mercy, and so forth.

And judgment entered up by the Court in the said Term of the said Court in the said Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen
