DECLARATION ON NOTE.—CAMDEN PRESS.

The State of South-Carolina.
Lancaster DISTRICT.

James Blackman Jr otherwise called Jas. Blackman Jr was attached to answer to William McKenna of a plea of trespass on the case, and so forth; And whereupon the said William McKenna by Miller & Dunlap his Attorneys complains That whereas, the said Jas. Blackman Jr on the 1st day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty four at Lancaster Court-House in the District and State aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did make his certain Note in writing, commonly called a Promissory Note, with his own proper hand writing thereunto subscribed, bearing date the day and year lastmentioned; by which said Note, the said James did promise to pay, or cause to be paid, unto the said William McKenna or order, the full and just sum of One hundred forty two Dollars and twenty eight Cents One ~~on or before the~~ day after the date thereof by reason whereof, and by force of the statute in such case made and provided, and made of force in this State; the said James became liable to pay to the said William the sum of money in the said Note specified according to the tenor and effect of the said Note: And being so liable, the said James afterwards, to wit, The same day and year lastmentioned, at Lancaster Court-House aforesaid and within the jurisdiction of this Court, in consideration thereof, upon himself did assume, and to the said William then and there faithfully promised that he the said James would well and truly pay to the said William the said sum of money in the said Note mentioned, according to the tenor and effect of the said Note:

Yet the said James his promise and assumption aforesaid, in form aforesaid, made, in no wise regarding, but contriving and fraudulently intending the said William in this behalf, craftily and subtly to deceive and defraud, the said James, the sum of money abovementioned, or any part thereof, to the said William hath not paid (although oftentimes afterwards required to do so) but the same to the said William to pay the said James hath hitherto altogether refused and still doth refuse; to the damage of the said William three hundred Dollars and therefore he bring suit, and so forth.
