Judgment entered up and signed 3rd May 1823
Wm. McKenna Clk

And now at this day to wit, the first Monday after the fourth Monday in March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three to which day the said James & Joel Defendants had leave to answer to the aforesaid declaration, before the Justices of the Common Pleas at a Court to be held at Lancaster Come the said Jane by her attornies aforesaid and pray that the said defendants may answer to the declaration aforesaid, & though solemnly called they come not nor say any thing in bar or preclusion of the aforesaid Action, but make default, wherefore she remains against them thereof undefended, whereupon she ought to have her damages sustained by reason of the premises, & because the same is a liquidated demand according to the act of the Genl. Assembly &c. it becomes unnecessary to execute a writ of enquiry, but only on motion to the Court to refer the same to the Clerk thereof to ascertain the amount due & the same being so referred, the said Clerk namely William McKenna finds the amount of the principal & interest to be One hundred & nine dollars Seventy one cents - Therefore it is considered that she do recover against the said defendants the said sum so found, and also the sum of Twenty four —— dollars & Forty seven Cents for her costs & charges by her expended in & about prosecuting her suit in this behalf & to her with their assent by the said Court adjudged, amounting in the whole to one hundred and thirty three dollars & Ninety eight Cents & be the said Defendants in mercy &c.
