South Carolina } In the Common pleas To wit
Lancaster District } Burrell Clarke late of Lancaster District was attached by his monies Goods and chattels Debts and Books of acct. as also by his Lands Leasehold estate and chattels real, to answer to Elizabeth Caston, of a plea of trespass upon the case and so forth also for certain promises and assumptions by the said Burwell to the said Elizabeth made and not performed to the damage of the said Elizabeth two hundred Dollars — Whereupon the said Elizabeth by Miller and Dunlap her Attornies complains for that the said Burwell on the twelfth day of ~~May~~ March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, at Lancaster Court house in the State and District aforesaid and within the Jurisdiction of this Court did make his certain note in writing commonly called a promissory note with his own proper hand writing thereunto subscribed By which said note the said Burrel ten months after the date thereof promised to pay the said Elizabeth the sum of One hundred & Six Dollars & — — ~~Cents~~ for value received of her the said Elizabeth. By reason whereof and by force of the Statute in such case made and provided and made of force in this State the said Burrel became liable to pay to pay the said sum of money, and being so liable in consideration thereof afterward to wit on the day and year last aforesaid at Lancaster Court House aforesaid the said Burrel undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said Elizabeth that he would well and truely pay the said sum of money when he should be thereunto afterward required — yet the said Burrel altho' often requested hath not paid the said sum or any part thereof except the sum of twenty Dollars. but the ballance to pay the said Burrel hath hitherto altogether refused and still doth refuse, to the damage of the said Elizabeth Two hundred Dollars and therefore she brings her suit and so forth —— Miller & Dunlap

And the said Burrell Clarke in his proper person comes and defends the force and injury and so forth, and says that he cannot deny the action of the said Elizabeth Caston, nor but that she the said Elizabeth Caston hath sustained damages by reason of the non performance, of the promises and assumption aforesaid, to one hundred and eleven dollars and eighty two cents as she the said Elizabeth Caston above by declaring supposed, and upon this the said Elizabeth Caston prays Judgment and those damages so acknowledged, together with her costs and charges by her about her suit in this behalf sustained to be adjudged to her and so forth

Therefore it is considered that the said Elizabeth Caston, do recover against the said Burrell Clarke, the damages aforesaid to one hundred and eleven dollars and eighty two cents above acknowledged, and also Twenty three Dollars and fifty four cents — for her costs and charges aforesaid with her assent by the said Court now herewith adjudged which said damages in the whole amount to and the said Burrell Clarke be in mercy and so forth
