McWillie & Howard Plaintiff's Attorneys

Sydia Blackman } fi fa vs } nis
William Ellis } Case

One application of Defendant for a retaxation of Witness Cost in above case as taxed by John McKenzie Esquire late Clerk — I have caused the parties to appear before me, and proceeded to the Consideration of Defendants objections — to wit

1st He objects to taxing full Costs for a witness, where there was no Sub. writ.

2nd That a Witness is only entitled to fifty Cents per diem when there is more than 4 witnesses in one S. writ.

3rd That the witnesses that attended before the filing the Dec. should not be allowed any thing. —

4th That John Blackman & Elijah Blackman, witnesses, who were not sworn, are not entitled to have their attendance taxed — first because they were interested in the event, and therefore could not give evidence — and secondly because they were Constably attending on the Court, and therefore not entitled to any thing

I Conceive this objection clearly illustrated, in the case of Clendon on & Doallan 4 Rep. page 454. the first objection is therefore sustained.

I cannot find any authority in support of the second exception — it is the usual practice to embrace from one to six witnesses in one sub writ; and really it is to the benefit of the Defendant it should be done, as he is put to less cost by doing so. — I therefore overrule this exception —

The third objection cannot admit of any doubt; this exception is there fore sustained —

The fourth last exception requ res evidence in support of its charge — and the Defendant produced the following to establish the interest which Elijah Blackman had in the suit — Mr. Benjamin Shyne sworn says that Elijah Blackman told him, since the case has been determined, that there was an agree ment between himself & Lydia Blackman — that he was to pay half the cost, in the event she failed to recover; and if she recovered any thing he (Blackman) was to share a part — On being cross examined he says E. Blackman told him, he was to pay ½ Complts fees should she fail to gain the suit & if she recovered he (Blackman) was to have ½. —

A. Howard atty for Lydia Blackman was sworn on the part of defendant & says that in his office since the result of this suit Mr E. Blackman charged Lydia Blackman the plff with having used him wrong in not sharing the amount recovered with him alledging that there was an agree ment between them to that effect which he (Blackman) said he could prove, and threatened to sue her if she did not comply — Lydia Blackman denied, having entered into any such agreement, but agreed to give Blackman seven or fourteen Dollars — No counter testimony was offered — and the evidence against Elijah Black man stood here —

according to the testimony here addduced I cannot resist coming to the conclusion Elijah Blackman was interested in the event of the suit - if there was no positive agreement - he, at least, was under the impression (if we are to believe the testimony) that he was to share a part of the recovery - and in fact, Mr Howard proves she did agree to give him seven or fourteen Dollars — The fact of him being employed as Constable during Court is conceded - I therefore am of opinion, that his Cost as a witness should is inadmissible & should not be taxed - not only on the grounds of incompetency as a witness but also on the ground of him being engaged in attendance on the Court as a Constable.

Testimony to verify the charges against John Blackman was also produced -

Cap. Saml. Taylor Sworn Says John W. Blackman requested him in the presence of Jeff to draw Articles of an agreement into which they had entered - Mr Taylor said he had not time to do so, but requested of them to know what the agreement was - Mr John Blackman in the presence of his sister Lydia Blackman the plff, said they were about to commence a suit against Mr Ellis & they had agreed that he (Blackman) should pay ½ the Cost should the ~~x x x x x~~ fail to recover, and was to share a part should the recovery thing - This witness was examined by affidavit -

Mr Jamey Reeves Sworn says that John Blackman a short time since (since the ~~spec~~ of the suit) told him that his sister Lydia Blackman the plff had used him wrong in refusing to share the amount recovered with him, and said there was an agreement between them to that effect, which, he Ca. prove.

According to the foregoing evidence I cannot doubt but what John Blackman conceived himself interested in the event of the suit, and I must therefore believe him incompetent as a witness — The fact of him being engaged in attendance on Court is also conceded — I am therefore of opinion the taxation of his cost as a Witness in a case in which he is evident be felt and paid an interest, is indemnifiable independent of the ground of him being engaged as Constable, which ground alone, I conceive sufficient to exclude him from the taxation of cost as witness —

The fourth & last objection is therefore sustained — and I have proceeded to tax, accordingly
